

THE LURE OF THE SPRING OUTDOORS IMPELS PHILADELPHIA WOMEN TO THE LINKS AND FARM

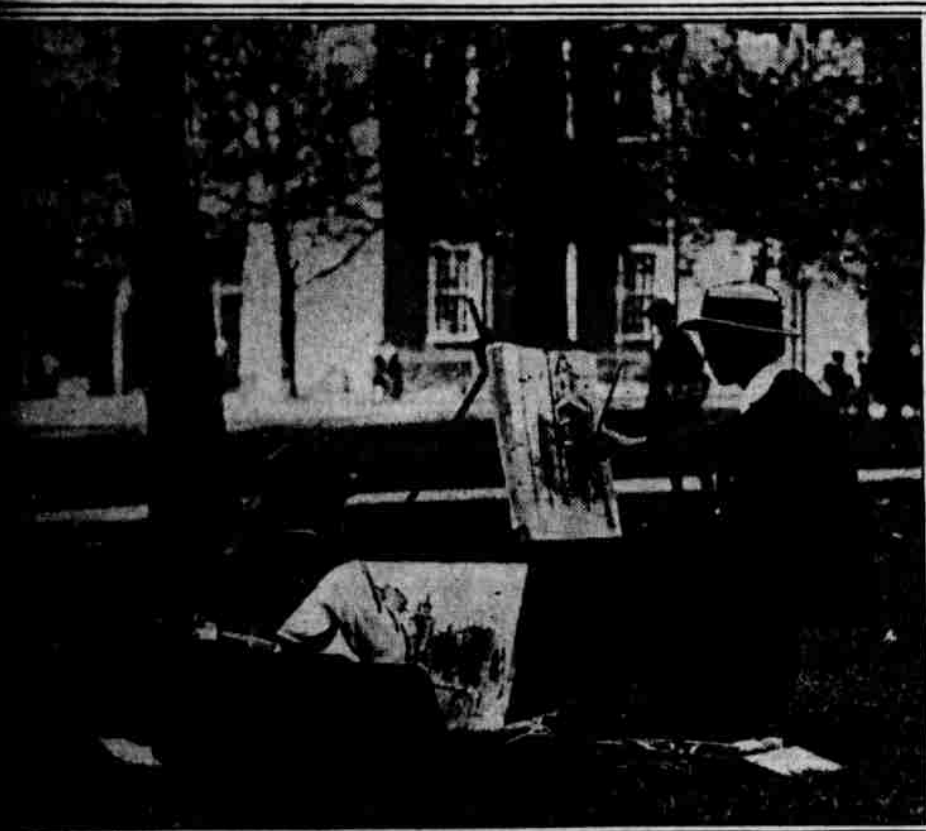

THE BRILLIANT PLAY of Miss Mildred Caverly for a time promised to win her the Geist Cup yesterday, but ended with giving her second place.

THIS SCENE SMACKS of real golf weather, with Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, winner of the Geist Cup for the fifth successive season, and Mrs. G. W. Curran, left to right, in the foreground.

WOMEN GOLFERS are keen competitors, and Mrs. G. H. Stetson put up a finish fight in the play for the Geist Cup at the Overbrook Club.

ART STUDENTS ALWAYS did delight in taking Independence Hall for a subject, and this beautiful spring, of course, is no exception.

NO SOONER HAD PRESIDENT WILSON issued his call for Boy Scouts to "spot" black walnut trees suitable for gunstocks than our Philadelphia Scouts patriotically answered the summons.

Art students always did delight in taking Independence Hall for a subject, and this beautiful spring, of course, is no exception.

THESE DAINY MAIDS (Misses Marion Miller and Helen Flanigan) will participate in "The American Beauty Dance" at the Sherwood Recreation Center's May Day festival this afternoon.

THE FARMERETTES' OFFICIAL GARB is "there" when it comes to utility; at least, that has been the experience of Miss Mary Pascoe and Miss Mildred Bright at Wynnewood.
